

Cremser Selection

Since 2001 best Austrian Worldmusic

Cremser Selection a worldmusic ensemble, that combines tradition with modernity

Founded in 2001 by 4 music enthusiasts. Classically trained and always connected to the traditional Austrian music, they have been playing in Austria and half of the world since then. In addition to traditional music, more and more of their own compositions came.

They excited the audience at festivals such as the Schrammelklangfestival or the “Festival of the Arts” in Delhi, India.

On concert tours for the Jeunesse Musical in Austria, for Austrian cultural forums in Italy and India and a trip to the USA, with a concert at the Grapefest in Texas, they presented themselves as ambassadors of Austrian music from yesterday

The Cremser Selection are:

Regina Stummer flute

Monika Smetana soprano and contraguitar

Eva Gaismeier violin

Peter Rauscher viennese harmonika voice and songwriting
